COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY APRIL 12, 1911.

NUMBER 23

DEATH OF A PROMINENT MINISTER.

Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., Drops Dead at Dryesburg, Tennessee.

FORMER PASTOR OF THE CHURCH HERE

This entire town was shocked last Wednesday afternoon when a dispatch reached Dr. U. L. Taylor, stating that his son-in-law Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Jr., had dropped dead at Dryesburg, Tenn., where he was engaged in evangelistic meetings. The deceased was on the streets and en route to dinner when he met with a stroke of apoplexy, ending in sudden death.

Eld. McGarvey, was born and reared in Lexington, and was a son of Eld. J. W. McGarvey, Sr., principal of the Bible College, that city. He was 53 years old.

When quite a young man the deceased came to this town as a teacher in C. C. College, and later he became the principal of the school, and was here several years, during which time he made many warm, personal friends. During the first year of his stay in Columbia he was happily married to Miss Fannie B. Taylor, an accomplished daughter of Dr. U. L. Taylor, and some years after their marriage Mr. McGarvey became the pastor of the Church here.

After he left Columbia he taught at Lexington University, and was also principal of a college at Richmond, Ky., for several years. He also taught and preached at other points in Kentucky. For the last two or three years he was evangelizing in the South.

The deceased was a polished gentleman and his death brought sorrow to many homes in Kentucky and other States.

The deceased is survived by his wife, his daughter, Miss Kay, and son, Earl, the children being grown.

The funeral services were held at Lexington, Ky., Thursday afternoon, Dr. U. L. Taylor, father-in-law of the deceased, being in attendance.

This community extends its sympathy to the bereaved wife, children and all other relatives.

To the Baptists.

Doubtless many are interested in the building of a new Baptist Church in Columbia, who have never indicated it in a substantial way, and that many intend to do so later on. If there are any who desire to give aid we can only say that now is the time to do it. The Committee appointed to solicit funds have tried to see every member, and with few exceptions have succeeded, but still we are short several hundred dollars. The time granted us to secure the amount necessary has nearly expired. Only about twelve more days remain in which to secure the eight thousand dollars, and if this is not done our fond desires must fail. We have gone to many who have only said, "I will see you later," or "I will let you know in a few days." Now in justice to the committee, in justice to the cause, why should you hesitate longer? Every member of the committee is a busy man, every one has given liberally, and has sought to give every member of the church an opportunity to give. Only a few hundred dollars are needed to secure the building, but it fails if it is not secured within a few days. If you are able to contribute, and want a modern house of worship, or if you want to increase your subscription, call on some member of the committee at your earliest hour. There is no time to lose if the amount necessary is secured.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Mr. James Clayton Bryant, who lived in the Craycraft country, died last Tuesday. He was well-known to a great many people in this county. He was a fine citizen, one who had many friends, all of whom will regret to learn that he has crossed over the dark river of Death. The deceased was in his 79th year, and for a good many years had been a consistent member of the Christian Church. The funeral services were conducted at the residence by Rev. Nathan Murrell, many relatives and friends being present. The deceased will be greatly missed from the neighborhood where he was born and reared, as he was exceedingly kind, ever ready to lend a helping hand to those in need. In politics, Mr. Bryant was an ardent Democrat from boyhood to old age, and until his health commenced to fail, he was active in county politics. He was a son of David Bryant, one of the pioneer settlers of this county, as good a man as Adair ever knew.

There will be a call meeting of the Odd-Fellows next Thursday night.

A Prediction.

The next Campaign for State offices in this Commonwealth, will be made in the A-roplane.

From it candidates will do their speaking by means of the megaphone, and from it will they distribute their literature.

They will, as it were, speak from on high.

Most of them seem to fear heights now, but braving altitudes will be come popular and the order of the day. Risking altitudes will seem better than risking money.

A new order of men will come forward. The old, the timid and the weakened will remain upon the earth from which they sprang.

Imagine all the candidates for state offices to announce that at Columbia on the 25th of October, 1915, they would begin their campaign and that they would circle the state in parallel lines fifty miles apart. What intense interest and excitement would ensue!

It would require backbone to do these things. Men would become accustomed to striking out from the shoulder. There would be no quibbling on the part of candidates. Their statements would be like dying declarations. Besides it would be grand to behold 20 or 30 candidates thus equipped for a campaign.

It could all be done and over in ten days.

Think of the innovations this would bring. The land candidate would not be in it. Campaign slang would go, handshaking would go, drinking would go, cursing would go, trickery and fraud and corruption in election would go.

No man thus lifted up could keep the fear of God out of him.

He should be required to keep in the air till 4 o'clock on the day of the election.

The people will be much profited by this mode. It would finally be required in campaigns for United States Senators.

This manner of campaign would call forth the best order of men.

The law will require them at the end of their terms from the aeroplane, to give an account of their stewardship.

This last trip will be at public expense, properly.

This would be equivalent to the initiative and referendum and recall.

Many candidates now entered would take lessons from Icarus and remain where they belong, upon the earth.

Who can say new inventions are not useful?

KENTUCKY FAIR DATES.

Firm Changes.

Mr. Walter Ingram has purchased his father's interest in the store here and will continue business at the same stand. By agreement, Mr. Henry Ingram withdraws his interest in the stock of goods and has removed the same into the building on Campbellsville pike, just below the Citizens Bank, and will conduct a general store at this stand. Mr. H. B. Ingram, who retires from the mercantile business, asks his friends to continue to patronize his two sons. For the trade he personally received, he returns thanks.

A copperhead snake bit a large steer owned by Alfred Garrett, last Wednesday, on the right fore leg. Mr. Garrett is employed by Mr. J. E. Gowdy and was on the farm of Mr. Gathery Bryant, hauling stave blocks. He saw the snake bite the steer and immediately killed it. The owner was in town Thursday to procure medicine to reduce the swelling on the steer.

Campbellsville.

A representative of the News was in Campbellsville a day or two of last week. He learned from several different sources that the business houses which were recently destroyed on Main street, would soon be rebuilt, much better buildings to take the places of the old ones. There is also a great deal of talk in regard to another hotel being erected. Dr. R. A. Sanders, who lost his office by the fire, has moved his place of business to rooms next entrance above T. E. Hoskins' store, and is on the ground floor, and very comfortably situated. He found his old friend, Mr. O. B. Finn, in the drug business, and learned that he was receiving a very satisfactory trade. His many friends in Adair county will be glad to learn that "Father Time" is dealing gently with him. Upon further inquiry he learned that a number of nice residences would be erected in the town this spring and summer. He had the pleasure of meeting and exchanging a few pleasant words with Mrs. T. W. Buchanan, who edits the Taylor County Enquirer. She informed him that the publication was doing a good business. He was also told that the News Journal was increasing its patronage, and the paper was growing in popularity.

When he left the small boys were talking about the circus which was billed to scoop down on the town the next day.

Commissioner's Sale.

ADAIR CIRCUIT COURT, KENTUCKY.

Farmers Bank of Cane Valley, Plaintiff vs.

R. A. and M. L. Hutchison, Defendants.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of Adair Circuit Court, rendered at the January Term, thereof, 1911, in the above cause, for the sum of twenty-eight hundred and thirty-six dollars and 96 cents with the interest at the rate of 6 per cent, per annum from the 18th day of January 1911, until paid, and $32.95 costs herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court-house door in Columbia, Ky., to the highest bidder, at Public Auction, on Monday the 1st day of May 1911, at 1 o'clock p. m., or thereabout (being County Court) upon a credit of six months the following described property, to-wit: A certain tract of land in Adair county Ky., on Butlers creek a branch of Green river and contains 150 1/2 acres and is the same land conveyed to R. A. Hutchison by the Wood Mosaic Floor & Lumber Co., by deed dated the 2nd day of May 1908 and recorded in deed Book 24 page 271 of the Adair county court Clerks office and is bounded as follows, to-wit: On the north by the lands owned by Ray Page on the West by the lands owned by J. B. Absher, on the South by the lands owned by Brack Massie and on the East by the lands owned by Zella Van Hoy and being the same land on which the Defendant now resides.

For the purchase price, the purchaser with approved surety or securities, must execute Bond, bearing legal interest from day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a Judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

W. A. Coffey, Master Commissioner.

Residence Burned.

The residence of Mr. Henry Hurt, located on Bomar Heights, was destroyed by fire last Sunday morning at 1 o'clock. It caught from the cook room and the roof of the ell was falling in before the occupants, Mr. Hurt and his wife, knew of the fire. The alarm was sounded and in a very short time more than one hundred men reached the scene but too late to render any assistance. Every thing in the building was destroyed, save a feather bed and a few small articles. Fortunately Mr. Hurt had $750 insurance on his residence and $250 on the furniture. Mr. Hurt has not given up the amount of his entire loss. We take it that he will rebuild at an early date.

Sermon to Woodmen.

Rev. J. R. Crawford will preach before the Modern Woodmen camp at the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening, April 23. His theme will be: "If the Carpenter Were Here." A special musical program will be given. Every body cordially invited to attend.

Miss Fannie Sallee, sister of Mr. Warren and Dr. Ed Sallee, fell and received a painful, if not a fatal injury last Sunday at her home. Fortunately her two brothers were near when she fell, and did all that could be done for relief. As we understand, one of the hip joints was dislocated or bone broken. Miss Sallee has reached a good old age, and is not in a physical condition to endure such an injury without the fear of serious results.

Action of the Fiscal Court.

The Fiscal Court of Adair County was in session five days of last week, and again put itself on record as an enterprising body of men. It agreed to build an iron bridge across Green river at Neatsville, the site selected where Harman's spring is located and known as the upper ford. The bridge will cost between four and five thousand dollars, twelve-hundred and fifty dollars of this amount being subscribed by people who were anxious for the project to go through. County Attorney Gordon Montgomery was appointed Commissioner assisted by County Judge N. H. Moss, to make contract and see that the bridge is properly erected. The levy made by Court is 21 cents for general purposes; 14 cents for bridge and road purposes; 15 cents for school purposes; $1.00 poll tax and 50 cents per capita for schools.

Claims allowed amounted to about $4,000.

PREACHING NEXT SUNDAY.

W. H. C. Sandridge, Greensburg.
F. J. Barger, Chesnut Grove.
Z. T. Williams, Pleasant Hill.
J. R. Crawford, Edmonston.
G. W. Pangburn, Elroy.
J. F. Black, Cane Valley.
J. F. Turner, Mt. Pleasant.
J. Menzie, Mosbys Ridge.
B. M. Currie, Columbia.
T. E. Ennis, Pleasant Valley.
W. S. Dudgeon, Plumpoint.
J. F. Roach, Good Hope.
L. F. Payne, Mt. Carmel.
D. H. Howerton, Columbia.
W. B. Cave, Pleasant Ridge.

Easter Services.

At the Methodist Church next Sunday morning and night, Easter will be observed with special services, consisting of appropriate and special music, and sermons.

Those having no Church engagements are cordially invited to attend.

All who will assist in the anthems and songs are requested to meet at the Church Wednesday night, immediately after prayer meeting.

B. M. Currie, Pastor.

A fair audience assembled at the Presbyterian church last Wednesday evening, and heard Mr. J. M. Patterson, la-man, of St. Louis, Mo., who is the Field Secretary of the Mission work of the Presbyterian church, south and south-west. He delivered a very entertaining address, telling his hearers what the great layman's movement was doing to advance the spread of the Gospel throughout the world in the way of subscribing money for the foreign field work. He did not ask for many here.

Eld. Leslie Bottom, who has been the pastor of the Church at Science Hill and also of Freedom for the past year, the Churches being located in Casey county, will again become a citizen of Knifley, this county. He was perfectly delighted with his charges, but his sister, who is his house-keeper, became dissatisfied and it is to please her that Eld. Bottom will return to Adair county. He will continue in the ministry, and expects to again take work in Adair. Mr. Bottom has his choice of men who are offering for office, and he requests us to say to Mr. James Garrett that he is very much interested in his race for Attorney General.

Our subscribers should bear in mind that we will reach the cash basis the first of June. After that date no name will be entered on our subscription list unless the subscription price, one dollar, is paid in advance. Patrons, who are on our books, and are not square at that date, will be stricken from the list. Our experience convinces us that too much is lost in doing a credit business. We do not want to lose a single subscriber and trust that all who are behind will pay before the first day of June.

The contest between the two bridge sites is over, the upper site people having the aid of the railroad and timber men and other companies of people, who live out of the county, enabling them to raise the money and make the required bond. The people who signed J. S. Breeding's article are released as he was representing the lower survey. Also we learn that the upper site people have plenty of money subscribed with out Breeding's subscription.

J. S. Breeding.

Lee S. Smith's great harness stallion, Baron Rhythmic No. 47139 will make the season of 1911 at the Fair grounds at the low fee of $10 to insure a live foal. He also has a good Jack that will make the season at the same place, for $8 for a mare colt, $7 for a horse colt.

Commissioner's Sale.

ADAIR CIRCUIT COURT, KENTUCKY.

Farmers Bank of Cane Valley, Plaintiff vs.

T. I. and Bessie Smith, Defendants.

By virtue of a Judgment and Order of Sale of Adair Circuit Court, rendered at the January Term, thereof, 1911, in the above cause, for the sum of seven hundred and fifty-eight dollars with the interest at the rate of six per cent, per annum from the 18th day of January 1911, until paid, and costs $32.95 herein, I shall proceed to offer for sale at the Court-house door in Columbia to the highest bidder, at Public Auction, on Monday the 1st day of May 1911, at one o'clock p. m., or thereabout (being County Court) upon a credit of six months the following described property, to-wit: One acre more or less lying in Cane Valley Adair county, Ky., and bounded as follows, viz: beginning at stone by the turn pike near the store house, thence N 45 E 25 poles to a stone, thence N 61 W 60 20 poles to a stone, thence S 45 W 25 poles to a stone by the turn pike, thence with said turn pike S 61 E 60 20 poles to the beginning, being the same land conveyed to Bessie L. Smith by A. H. Judd, and wife, by deed dated September 1st 1900 and recorded in Adair county court Clerks office, in Deed Book 14 page 465 and is the same on which defendants now reside.

For the purchase price, the purchaser with approved surety or securities, must execute Bond, bearing legal interest from day of sale until paid, and having the force and effect of a Judgment. Bidders will be prepared to comply promptly with these terms.

W. A. Coffey Master, Commissioner.

Rev. A. N. Palmer, State Superintendent Kentucky Anti-Saloon League, spoke at Cane Valley last Sunday forenoon, Columbia in the afternoon and at night. Large audiences heard him, and a sum of money was subscribed here to assist in maintaining the league, thereby pushing the work. Mr. Palmer is a forceful speaker, and is very enthusiastic in the cause of temperance. He was very cordially received here.

Mr. Bob Smith, who lives near Mt. Pleasant church, met with a serious accident last Friday. He was on his farm and walking down hill with a chopping ax on his shoulder. The ground was very slick and he slipped and fell. In falling the ax turned, struck him on the back of his head, cutting a gash an inch and a half long. Before a doctor could reach him he lost about one gallon blood. He is now doing very well.

Mrs. Elzy Shepherd, who lived at Safford, this county, died Monday night of last week, a victim of pneumonia. She was about 65 years old and a member of the Methodist church, a fine lady, who had many friends in the neighborhood. She is survived by her husband and several children, one of her daughters being very low at this time with the same disease.

The wind storm Tuesday evening of last week did considerable damage between Columbia and Russell Springs. Trees were uprooted and fencing and out houses scattered in every direction. A gentleman who started from Russell Springs, after the wind laid, was five hours getting to Columbia, there being a number of trees across the road.

Thanks.

Mr. Allison Conley, of Bud, Wayne county, writes us as follows: "Please find enclosed check to pay for another year's subscription to your valuable paper. I find that I can not conveniently do without it. I think you get out the best local paper I ever read."

Mr. Geo. M. Stevenson, one of the proprietors of the roller mills, has moved his family to Columbia. They are occupying the residence on Burkesville street formerly the residence of Dr. James Menzies. This family is a valuable acquisition to Columbia.

Dr. J. L. Brandt, who recently held a meeting here, closed a series of sermons at Frankfort last Friday night. There were about one hundred additions to the Church. From Frankfort Mr. Brandt went to his home in St. Louis, Mo., and after a two week's rest, he will go to Texas.

Mr. R. F. Rowe, of Amandaville, met with a considerable loss Sunday morning of last week. A double crib containing over two hundred barrels of corn was destroyed by fire. The fire was discovered at 4 o'clock in the morning, and the general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary.

We urge our subscribers, who are behind to pay up before the first of June.

MODERN WOODMAN BANQUET.

Fittingly Celebrate the First Anniversary of the Organization of Their Local Camp.

That the local camp of Modern Woodmen is becoming more and more a fact, or in Columbia's progressive strides for larger and better things, must be apparent to the citizen not purblind with a prejudice. To unite together so large a number of capable, sturdy men, all in the very prime of life, in any laudable undertaking is an achievement worthy of mention. But when that purpose is the protection of loved ones, the promotion of brotherhood and the explicit teachings of principles for society's betterment, it should command our highest admiration. The order's chief charm is that it appeals alike to all worthy classes of individuals; and within its wholesome environments all of its members breathe the same atmosphere of unrestrained freedom.

The lessons taught in the society's initiatory symbolism are of a high moral character and when fully received and practiced serve to enable citizenship. However, it is not the purpose of this article to write at length of the virtues of this well known fraternal order, rather it is the purpose to speak of the late banquet, given at one of Columbia's principal hostelry on Friday evening, April the 7th. This event was given in recognition of the first anniversary of the local camp, and, according to those present, a great success was scored.

At an early hour of the evening each "neighbor" accompanied by wife, sister or sweetheart (there were a few utterly bereft of such comforts) assembled in the Woodmen Forest. Here the time was most pleasantly passed in explaining the mysteries, in small talk, in conferring "side degrees" and an exhibition drill by the Foresters. It was 9:30 o'clock when a messenger announced that supper was ready, when an impromptu line was formed that moved with military promptness, if not with military precision, to the hotel that was some two blocks distant. The brilliantly lighted and decorated dining hall, with its invitingly filled tables, was a scene of inspiration; then a scene of determination, and lastly a scene of perspiration. The Chief Forester commanded as a skilled general, the busy multitude and kept up an incessant rain of oratory, and occasional lightning flash of repartee and at other times thunders of applause. Two hours soon sped by for the seventy or eighty banqueters when the singing was sung, and a domine neighbor delivered the benediction. "Good nights" followed and there went into history one of the most spectacular and most resultful events ever enacted in Columbia's fraternal world. All honor to those having in charge the details of this successful entertainment. As is characteristic of Modern Woodmen, all was planned in good taste and, admittedly done to a finish. X X X

Barred Plymouth Rock Fowls Exclusively—Eggs Eggs.

15 eggs $1.00, 100 eggs $5.00. I have a fine grade of fowl stock from the noted breeders as Pope & Pope, Louisville Ky. Mrs. Ida H. Paxton, Rollingburg, Ky.

A card from Mr. J. W. Richards says that he and wife made the trip to Kansas all right. There is not any perceptible change in the condition of Mrs. Richards, but he has hopes that she will get better. He found his brother and family well.

The Transylvania Presbytery of the Presbyterian church will convene at Mt. Vernon, Ky., at 7:30 p. m., Apr. 11. Mr. W. P. Summers and Rev. J. R. Crawford left this (Tuesday) morning to attend the meeting.

The home of Dr. W. P. Alexander, Cleburne, Texas, was entered one night last week by burglars and several hundred dollars in money and jewelry stolen. Mrs. Alexander was Miss Lou Baker, born and reared in Columbia.

In more ways than one did the piano contest prove its popularity. Misses Grace Dudley, Mattie Squires, Annie L. Blakeman and Mattie Gibson, who were entered in the contest, got married to prosperous young men during its progress.

I will sell my farm known as the Piles place, containing over two hundred acres and one of the best farms in close reach of Columbia. If you want a good house and productive land call and see me. Identifiable and good. Richard DeKoney, 231m. guided named on A. J. Hill street.

Facts About the Present Session.

Extraordinary session of the Sixty-second Congress, which will not meet in regular session until next December.

Principal purposes to pass the McCall bill, carrying into effect the reciprocity agreement recently concluded with Canada.

Session made necessary by the action of a small minority of the Senate—composed in about equal parts of regular and insurgent Republicans—who prevented action on the bill at the concluding session of the Sixty-first Congress, which ended March 4.

Reciprocity bill will certainly be passed, as the Democratic party is committed to the measure and in the vote on the bill in the last House contributed nearly twice as many "ayes" as Mr. Taft's own party.

President Taft also may favor the passage of an act providing for a permanent Tariff Commission, which will be received with favor by a majority of the Democrats.

Democrats have a large majority in the new House, with Representative Champ Clark, of Missouri, as Speaker, while the Republican majority in the Senate is reduced to eight.

Special session is not limited in scope, and either House may attempt legislation not mentioned in the President's recommendations, and in time the session is limited only by the opening of the regular session in December.

Without the approval of the President, and with the probability of his veto, the Democrats will probably undertake a revision of the woolen, cotton, textile and steel schedules of the Payne-Aldrich act.

Democratic majority in House will also pass the constitutional amendment providing for the election of Senators by direct vote of the people.

House will pass bill admitting Arizona and New Mexico as States, and will present it to the Senate for action.

President Taft may be asked for further official explanation of his action in mobilizing troops along the Mexican border.

The political complexion of the Congress convened in extraordinary session to-day is as follows:

Senate—Republicans, 50; Democrats, 41; vacancy, 1.

House—Democrats, 228; Republicans, 160; Socialist, 1; vacancies, 1.

In the Sixty-first Congress, which was adjourned March 4, the Senate membership was:

Republicans, 59; Democrats, 52; vacancy, 1.

The House membership was: Republicans, 217; Democrats, 174.

The Senate vacancy is from Colorado, the Legislature being Democratic. Iowa is expected soon to elect a successor to the late Senator Dolliver, whose seat now is occupied by LaFayette Young.

The House vacancies are from the Ninth Iowa and the Second Pennsylvania districts.

Life's Fruition.

This life is as a highway leading out into the citizenship of immortality. Any human being who has placed his feet upon this royal highway of life, even though his existence be the poorest, commonest, the most restricted sort of an existence possible, has received a gift past all computation beyond all imaginable value—the mysterious gift of life.

He has before him all that eternity means to a child of the infinite God; and this infinite God is under infinite responsibility to do all He can to make this mysterious gift of life to His child an unspeakable blessing.

The magnificent fact of another life sets a rainbow of hope against all the adverse conditions of this life. The question as to whether or not God's government is good becomes as nothing in the face of the certainty of an immortal evolution.

Blossoms may seem to fade here but they will come to fruition in the other life. Ideals may seem to be shattered here, but they will reappear hereafter, aglow with a new splendor. Every dream, every hope, every purpose—all shall find realization at last. Every shadow shall grow light; all loneliness shall find a presence that shall be company and joy. The bud which is now nipped by the frost shall yet bloom in beauty and sweetness. The fruit which does not get ripe in this climate shall yet ripen under the summer skies of immortality.

Somewhere, sometime, somehow, we shall all attain to all that God ever gives us of sweet and true and beautiful.

Fifty Years Without Shaving.

Button Smith, one of the best-known characters of Petersburg, had his first shave and hair cut in fifty years to day and when he left the barber and went home it was an hour before his aged wife would believe that he was her husband.

He was eighty-five years old a few days ago and his last shave and hair cut were before the presidential election in 1855.

"Uncle Button" as he has been known for a generation, was an original Republican, and in 1854 made a vow not to shave or have his hair cut for fifty years if his party did not win in the ensuing election, and he religiously kept his pledge.

His hair reached nearly to the ground and his beard was below his waist, and both perfectly white giving him a strange appearance and making many believe he was deranged.

When the barber got through shaving and cutting his hair that which was taken off nearly filled a half bushel basket.

"Uncle Button" says that he greatly misses his beard and he is sorry now that he submitted to the barber. He looks forty years younger so great is the transformation by being relieved of the heavy white beard and enormous growth of hair.—Indianapolis Telegram.

Try This Puzzle.

Here is a puzzle that puzzles every body. Take the number of your living brothers, double the amount, add to it three, multiply by five, add to it the number of your living sisters, multiply the result by ten, add the number of deaths of brothers and subtract 150 from the result. The right figure will be the number of deaths, the middle will be the number of living sisters and the left will show the number of living brothers. Try it and see.

Farm Work Advanced.

Reports from various counties show that spring work is more advanced than usual. The extremely low price of tobacco is making many prospective growers hesitate and if contracts with tenants were not already made the area devoted to the weed would be greatly curtailed. Hands are hard to secure and while they want more wages in many places farmers are not willing to pay the same as last year. In consequence, it is thought much land now devoted to cultivation will be put in grass in the near future. If clover seed was not so high there would be a great deal sown anyhow. For some reason alfalfa has not been a success in most sections of Kentucky and what promised to work a revolution in farm methods a few years ago, is not now receiving much attention. The area devoted to potatoes in the State will be largely increased notwithstanding the low price received for the last crop. Much more attention would be given to fruit growing if the seasons were not so uncertain, but in many places the growing of berries is attracting attention. Opinion is divided as to the statues of the present crop but much of the early fruit is undoubtedly killed while apples, etc., are still unhurt.

The Meaning of Easter.

By Evangeline Booth.

Easter ought to mean for New York the birth of a new hope of such a potential character as to carry with it salvation for both worlds. The Christ-man in ineffable tenderness spreads his nail-pierced hand in blessing upon the heads and hearts of all who desire it. And who does not desire it in this fevered, hustling, bustling, crowding, crushing twentieth century? Whose touch is so cooling and tender as his? Whose love is so strong and available? Whose balm so healing? Whose pity so real? Whose support so constant? Whose character so unchangeable?

To me it is so beautiful that the anniversary of the Saviour's resurrection occurs at that wonderful period of the year when nature works her annual miracle of bringing life out of death, of regenerating the long, dark night of winter and crowning it with the divine dress of the radiant springtide. Nature's book of pulsing brook birdling's carol, hum of bee, heavenly tint of bud and blossom and the myriad voices of fen and forest that tell of springtide's rejuvenation is one to be studied by all men and can only lead to one source—the God of nature himself. It is a living Christ we worship and serve. He conquered death and hell—for himself and for us; conquered them for this world as well as the next. The forces of evil need not have dominion over us.

If we will come to him in penitence and submission he will infuse his divine life into our very being and make life a new thing to us. It is not a theory but a fact that the ascended Christ will not change the nature as to enable the individual to regard life from an altogether new viewpoint and realize that indeed, regardless of the pains and imperfections that beset us all, a spiritual "time of the singing of birds" has come.

Explosion Kills Two.

A special from Campbellsville reports that the boiler to a large saw mill owned by Phillips Bros., exploded Wednesday, killing instantly Harry Wilson and Luther Cox, fireman, Hushell Phillips and another mill hand were seriously injured; four others slightly injured. The entire mill is a total wreck. Part of it was found at least one-half mile away. Phillips' mill is located on Dr. White's farm, about six miles from Campbellsville, the timber belonging to U. P. Walling. Eleven years ago mill located in that same neighborhood exploded killing five men.

Wonderful Hats.

On one occasion Lincoln was presented with two fine hats, each by a different hatmaker, neither knowing that the other had made such a contribution. In the course of events they called upon the president, and it so happened that both called at the same time. When both found themselves in the presence of the executive they asked how he liked the hats they had sent him and taking advantage of the opportunity of securing a statement of superiority of one or the other make, the president was asked to state his preference. To many men such a question would be very embarrassing, but to Lincoln not at all. He took the hats, one in each hand, and then replied gravely, but with a mischievous twinkle in his keen eyes: "Gentleman, your hats do surpass each other!"

FREE REMEDY HELPS CHILDREN

Many a mother has learned of a way of avoiding sickness in her family, especially among the children, by the use of a free sample bottle of the famous laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This offer of the doctor's to send a free sample bottle has been responded to by thousands of women in all parts of America.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a truly wonderful laxative and especially adapted to the needs of babies and children because it is pleasant to taste and no child will refuse it. Then, it is mild and never gripes. It is all that a child's remedy should be, though it is a good laxative for the whole family because it is effective at all ages. It is not dynamic like salts, pills and powerful cathartics, which should not be given to children under any circumstances.

Nine times out of ten when a child complains and you don't know exactly what is the matter with it, it needs a laxative—its bowels are constipated. Syrup Pepsin will correct the trouble, tone up the child and soon it will be well again—wonderful results have been secured with Syrup Pepsin over night.

You can buy it of any druggist at fifty cents or a dollar a bottle, the latter being the family size, but you are invited to make a test of it first at the doctor's expense. Send him your address today and he will send you a free sample bottle direct to your home. Then when satisfied buy it of your favorite druggist.

For the free sample address him: Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 402 Caldwell building, Monticello, Ill.

THE ADAIR COUNTY NEWS

Published Every Wednesday

BY THE

Adair County News Company
(INCORPORATED.)

CHAS. S. HARRIS EDITOR.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. APRIL 12, 1911.

The News has called attention to the importance of a Democratic platform, to be made before the primary, and in so doing has expressed the sentiment and judgment of the entire voting strength of the party in this section. Throughout the state, as represented by the papers that reach this office, a similar appeal to the committee has been made, but to no use except the feeble intimations that a platform will be made after the primary. So far as we are personally concerned, it is immaterial and in fact should not be disturbed or disgruntle any true Democrat, but if it is the purpose of the party managers to invite outside voters to join in, then it seems that a declaration, clear and to the point, should be made before our candidates are named. In fact we believe in putting candidates on a platform rather than putting a platform on candidates but regardless of "before or after taking" the Democrats of this section will be found on the firing line when the battle is pulled off in November.

The News is not now, nor has it at other times sought to push its preference for nominations for the various State offices except its home candidate, Mr. Garnett. It does not know who would make the best officials or who would make the strongest race, but feels that no mistakes will be made in the selection for a good man for every position. As to Mr. Garnett it has an abiding faith that our party could not select a more competent man nor one who would live closer to official duty when elected. It also knows that he stands with the sentiment of the great common people and that they will stand by him. He will get the heaviest vote in this section of the State of any man that has ever offered for such an important position. To outside Democrats we can only say, name the ticket with Garnett for Attorney General and it will be all right.

Hon. James Garnett, of Columbia, was in Hodgenville last week feeling the pulse of the dear people. Mr. Garnett is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General. The Herald following an old custom, has not declared for any man for the nomination for any office, but we can say most emphatically that "Jim" Garnett looks good, is good and will be good enough for The Herald if the Democracy of Kentucky, in its "mechanism," sees fit to nominate him. He's clean, conservative, sensible—a fine lawyer, and would give the State the best service in the Attorney General's office. He would give strength to a ticket that will need strength, and The Herald respectfully, with bowed head, reverently recommends the Hon. James Garnett, of Columbia, Ky., to all of the Democratic voters of Kentucky, to a part of them, or to the gentlemen who make slates and put 'em over.—Hodgenville Herald.

IS CONSIDERING.

I have not fully made up my mind, but I think I will very shortly enter the race for Governor. I have received many letters from prominent Republicans in different parts of the state, urging me to enter the race. It is thought by my friends that this part of the state should have a candidate and that I am in a position to poll the largest vote of any yet mentioned. If I should be the nominee I shall make a thorough canvass of the State and land a victory in November. Geo. Nell.

The good roads meeting, held at Elizabethtown last Saturday, was a great success. There were over six hundred delegates present from counties through which the old Louisville and Nashville pike passes. This road is greatly out of repair at this time, and an effort will be made to build it in one day. August the 15th was the day practically agreed upon for the work.

The little bickerings, the dark paintings of disappointed Democrats, in their failure to follow their ideal for Governor, are fast disappearing and hope and determination to win next November is rapidly gaining strength.

The contest for the Democratic nomination for Governor is now a proposition between two good men either of which is worthy of every true Democrat's support in the state.

LOCUST GROVE STOCK FARM

RAVEN BIRD

Sired by Red Bird 1956, he by Cabell's Joe Brown 1955, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234, by Gist's Black Hawk.

1st dam Authilia Thompson, by Thompson's Lexington, he by Cabell's Lexington 3234 by Gists Black Hawk. 2nd dam by Caldwell's Denmark, he by King Denmark. 3rd dam Banie, by Old Nat Brown 81.

Raven Bird is a beautiful mahogany bay full 16 hands high, five years, he has the best of eyes feet and legs, a beautiful head and neck, a very heavy well set tail, which he at all times carries to perfection. He possesses extreme speed, style and action, and the most perfect disposition of any stallion I have ever seen or handled. He has fine distinct gaits, and goes them all in a most attractive manner. You will note from his breeding that he has for his sire the famous old Red Bird, who has perhaps sired as many high class show, and sale horses as any stallion in Kentucky, and traces on his dam's side to Cabell's Lexington, conceded by all horsemen to be one of the greatest sires that ever lived. Raven Bird is one of Red Bird's greatest sons, and has proven himself an excellent breeder, and we have every reason to believe that, if he is given an opportunity he will make a reputation equal to that of his worthy sire. Service fee $15.00 to insure a living colt.

Alexander's Artist 4517 A. S. H. R.

Sired by Fayette Artist 4516 he by Kentucky Artist 1455, he by Artist Montrose 51, he by Artist 75 by King William 67.

1st dam Louise Cabell 59 by Red Squirrel 53. 2nd dam Julia C. 1304 by Jewel Denmark 70, by Washington Denmark 64. 3rd dam by Dew drop, by Cabell's Lexington. Alexander's Artist is a beautiful red chestnut, four years old, 15½ hands high. You will note from his above that there but few if any better Stallions in Kentucky. He is a grand individual and in every way as good as his breeding. He is thoroughly broken to double and single harness, and nicely gaited, in fact he is a combined horse of high class, and presents a magnificent appearance any where you place him. His future as a show horse and as a producer of saddle horses, will compare most favorably with the best. Fee, $12.50 to insure a living colt.

Marion

Marion is a black Jack with white points, 5 years old, 15 hands high, extra good length, heavy bone and foot, good head and ears. He has lots of substance, in fact he has all of the desirable features of a first-class Jack. He has proven himself very sure and a most excellent breeder. Service fee $10.00 to insure a living colt.

The above described stock will do service at my barn in Columbia.

I am prepared to take care of mares sent to me from a distance. Mares pastured at $2.00 per month, or fed at $8.00. In all cases money is due and must be paid, when mares are bred to other stock, traded, parted with or removed from the neighborhood. All stock will receive my personal attention, and due care will be taken to prevent accidents or escapes, but will not be responsible should any occur.

What the April Woman's Home Companion Contains.

The April number of Woman's Home Companion is brimful, pressed down and overflows with the spirit of Easter. It is a riot of joyousness, of frilly Easter frocks of new spring hats, of gardens, music, verse and entertaining fiction. But underneath the sparkle and lightness of the surface attractions of this magazine lies the splendid bed-rock of all its helpful departments and strong special articles.

The fiction in the April Woman's Home Companion includes the second part of "The Flight of the Magic Carpet," a charming story of love, adventure and a motor car by C. N. and A. M. Williamson. "Mrs. Benson's Brains" by Annie Warner, a homely little tale of a mother who thought she had very little "brains" but proved the contrary other contributors are Marv Heaton Vorse, Maude Radford Warren, Grace M. Sissons and Louise Forslund.

An Easter Sermon by Dr. Charles E. Jefferson, Pastor of the Broadway Tabernacle, New York City is one of the features of the April Woman's Home Companion. This number also contains an Easter hymn by Richard Le Gallienne, illustrated by Earl Steton Crawford, and an article on equal suffrage, "Why I Want Ballot." Time was when a man scorned to read a woman's magazine. That time is long past and the "man of the house" will be keenly interested in Mrs. John D. Adams' article on "Furniture Making," which includes a design with working drawings of a comfortable porch swing.

Spring house-cleaning and general overhauling will lose its terrors for the young housekeeper if she will read and put into practice the "First Principles" of this important subject, compiled by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herick. It is possible to enjoy the "comforts of home" even though the awful hour of stocktaking and renovation is at hand, we are told in the April Woman's Home Companion. Little gardens and big gardens, flower and vegetable gardens—they all have a corner in this splendid Easter number.

By The Bachelor Girl.

The spider who boasts about her web is a long time catching the fly.

The girl and the place don't make much difference to a man if he happens to have the time.

Any article, even a husband or a wife, becomes worn and dull and loses all its pristine beauty and attractiveness after a few years.

Choosing a husband is like choosing a hat; it is so hard to find one that has style, beauty, usefulness and durability and yet may be got at your own price.

A man marries when he is tired of play; a woman when she is tired of work. Is it any wonder that most married people appear to have "that tired feeling?"

When a man has done anything particularly atrocious he loves to go about calling himself a "fool;" it makes him feel so moral and injured and irresponsible.

It is difficult for a girl to decide whether to marry a soul-mate who will feed her vanity and her sentiment or a middle-aged ball man who will feed her on real food.

It is much more comfortable to be considered a "little devil" and get a credit mark every time you do anything right, than to be considered an "angel" and get a black mark every time you do anything human.

Eddy Texas.

Editor News:

Thinking perhaps a few items from this place would be of some interest to some of my old friends I will endeavor to write a few.

Eddy, is situated in what is known as the Black Waxy Belt of the State, 20 miles South of Waco, and 16 miles north of Temple, on the main line of the M. K. & T. R. R., and has a population of eight hundred people. There are three nice churches in the town, Baptist, Methodist and Christian. We have two good schools, one public and one private; two States farm Banks, Dry good stores, fine grocery stores, two drug stores, two barber shops, two Hotels, one livery stables, one auto Garage and quite a number of handsome residences as nice as will be found in any place. The town is supplied with an abundance of good artesian water, by an up-to-date water system. We also have a splendid Telephone exchange, and last but not least we have the best class of people in the world. All the fraternal orders are represented, the Masons, Odd Fellows, Knights of Pythias, Woodmen of the world and Modern Woodmen, all have strong lodges here.

We raise corn, cotton, oats, millet and all kinds of vegetables, however it is a better cotton country than any thing else. so the most of the land is planted in cotton.

It has been very dry here for 3 years, but we have had five rains recently, and now have the best prospects for a good crop that we have had for years. Corn is up large enough to plow, and some of the farmers are planting cotton.

The writer had the pleasure of entertaining in his home for a short time only, one of his old friends, Mr. Strong Hill, of Gradyville, whom we had not seen for 21 years, and we want to say that we were very glad to meet him, and very sorry that his stay could not be longer. Come again Strong, and stay as long as you want to, for I assure you that you have lots of friends in this part of Texas that will always be glad to see you. We are always glad to meet any of our boyhood friends. There are quite a number of Kentuckians in this part—the Warriners and Marshalls, of Creelsboro, W. L. Taylor, of Glensfork, Tom Moore and Tom Bohanan, of Gradyville, Logan Vaughan and the Coffey boys, of Jamestown, and we all, or most of us take the News, and the first thing we read are the letters from the nearest place to our home, consequently, the writer always looks for the Owensby letter, as that is nearest my old home. I imagine now I can see the boys as they gather at Moore's school house, to attend Sunday School of long ago. Those days are gone—where are all of the boys? The Haynes, Collins, Simer, Reeses, Paynes, Claytons, Moores, Wolfords, and to wind up with Sam Rowe and Joe Coffey, who never failed to be late, and would come in with a gang of old hungry hounds, in order to rabbit hunt as they returned home. Well Mr. Editor, please find enclosed check, to pay for a continuance of the News, as we could not get along without it, and if this escapes the waste basket, I will try to write again in the future. G. F. C.

Toria.

On March 18, 1911, Mr. A. D. Patton was called to exchange worlds. He had been sick for quite a while and seemed to suffer very much in spite of all that loving hands could do. He was perfectly willing to meet the death summons, and said he was going where he had a number of friends and a darling babe, which had been carried home long ago. He leaves a loving companion, three daughters and six grand children, besides a host of friends. May the angels of mercy hover around his mourning friends and comfort them in their trouble. Companion weep not, and trust in the Lord, for it will not be long until you will clasp hands with him on the banks of sweet Deliverance. Children obey the Lord, for father is not dead, but lives with Him who said; "I am the resurrection and the life." Grand children who are not prepared, meet him around the throne of God.

Brothers Payne and Scott have just closed out a weeks meeting at Mt. Pleasant church with eleven conversions, and leaving some on the anxious seat. It was a wonderful meeting. The Lord was there pouring out His blessings on His children, and they were made to shout his praise. We have not the gift of tongue to express our heartfelt thanks for being permitted to mix and mingle our voices together with them. The Lord was with them and backed them with the holy spirit and they were made through the Divine love of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ to deliver interesting sermons both day and night. May God strengthen the ministers, and help them in their work that there may be much good accomplished through, and by them.

Program.

Editor News:

As you was kind enough to print a few lines that I contributed to your press some time ago, and as I have just returned from a short visit at my home in Adair county, where I meet with many of my old friends who gave me a hearty welcome and in review of the fact that some of my relatives and friends asked me to pen a few lines to your much read paper for publications, so at this time I have a few spare moments and nothing to do but meditate, and my mind carries me back to old forgotten memories of the Blue Grass state and to those whom I have learned to love and honor from childhood, and my recent but seemingly short visit has seemed to rekindle the flames anew, and as I sit here tonight I can recall many things that happened in earlier days that had become almost forgotten. So while the night begins to fall and the black robed messenger of darkness is steadily but surely stealing the twilight of its beauty, I am sitting here looking out in the gloomy darkness. I can't help but ponder over the happy scenes of boyhood and I can't help but feel a little blue, for as you all know there is a great difference in the frozen north and the Sunny South. When I left dear old Kentucky the weather was very beautiful, but when I reached here I found snow four feet deep and fifteen degrees below zero. It is very cold here tonight and the wind is blowing fierce, but the snow will go rapidly now as spring is speedily approaching. The Barren fields and trees will soon come to life and everything will seem more home like.

Well I suppose you have heard a great deal about the war cry in Mexico. It is about all the talk here. I don't know whether we will have to go or not. We may get to go late. We have no orders yet but we are very anxious to get a whack at those greasers, but I fear that we will not be called out as we are so far North and Stationed on the Canadian border, never-the-less we are ready for anything that comes up and are only awaiting orders. We could get ready to move on a few hours notice and it would be joyful news if we could get orders to go at once.

Well as the fall of night proceedeth and the wind howls desperately outside and I cannot think of a great deal more to say, shall bring this short message to a close by wishing success to the Adair County News and its many readers. Very Respectfully,

William R. Harrison,
Co. H. 24th Inf.

The hickory business at this place is largely on the increase. Looks very much like at this time that Messrs Baker and Morrison will do a good business.

Mr. Guy Breeding, formerly of Elida, New Mexico, is with us for a few days, in the photograph business, and the outlook at the this time is far a good business.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hindman of Columbia, accompanied by their daughters, visited relatives and friends here last Saturday night and attended church at Union on Sunday.

Gov. J. R. Hindman of Columbia, in company with his brother, William, was in our midst last Thursday. The Gov. remained over with us for a day or so, we are all made glad when the Gov. comes for he is very interesting in his conversation.

Mr. William Sexton is painting the Bank roof this week. William understands how to put it on.

Mrs. Kate Montgomery and her daughter, Elizabeth, of Columbia, spent a day or so the first of the week visiting the parents at this place.

The singing at this place conducted by Prof. R. Cabbell of Joppa, is largely attended and the Prof. says this is one of the finest classes he ever taught; both old and young are hartily in the work. If you want to hear some good music give us a call any night next week you desire.

Mr. S. R. Walker, the well-known tobacco dealer and business man of Nell, was in our midst one day last week and informed us he was on the market a gain for tobacco. Notwithstanding his losses on the first shipment was considerable. We trust the last purchases of all the tobacco dealers will pull them even in their losses.

The fire alarm was turned on in our city last Tuesday afternoon about sunset, and the news was at once heard that Mr. Robert O. Keltner's house was on fire. The bucket brigade was at the place on time prepared for any emergency, and Mr. John Morrison of Columbia, mounted the two story building to the top at once and found it was only the soot burning out of the flue, and the crevices in the flue let the smoke out and the appearance of the smoke coming through the shingles of the building looked very much like the top of the house was all on fire. Glad to say we were all scared worse than hurt.

Something like eight years ago when Mr. E. H. Huges, the well-known cashier of the First National Bank of Columbia, was in the mercantile business here with Messrs. J. A. Diddle and J. D. Walker. There was a report circulated that a certain party living in this town at that time had made a skeleton key that would lock and unlock their business house, and the said person was seen by different persons to go in and out of sale house on various occasions, and this report caused the arrest of this suspicious person and he was arraigned before the bar of justice and the proof was not sufficient to condemn him and he was acquitted. On last Thursday Mr. Elemer Keen, who owns the building where this party worked was sawing out the weather boarding preparatory for putting in a new door and he came across a skeleton key. Goe. H. Nell was present and the circumstance came to his mind to once and he made the remark that there was the key that the person used in locking and unlocking the store, it was taken to the store that the party was accused of going into and it was found to be a perfect fit to lock and unlock said house.

Jordan Peacock.

This noted Saddle Stallion will make the present season at Gradyville, Ky., and will serve mares at the low price of $15.00 to insure a mare with foal. Jordan is in fine shape, looks like a colt. He is so well known that he needs no introduction to the public. He is known from the Pacific to the Atlantic Ocean. Jordan has sired from 50 to 100 colts every year for 14 years, and most all of them have been sold from weanlings to 4-year-olds at from $100 to $2,000. There has been a goodly number of them sold from 500 to $1,000. There has been over One Hundred Thousand Dollars paid to the people of Adair and joining counties for this horse's colts.

I will also stand NOBLE PEACOCK, a son of Jordan Peacock, on the same terms as Jordan Peacock. NOBLE is a very fine young horse. He was shown in two rings at the Columbia Fair, last year and won each time. There were 8 entries in one ring and Noble won the blue tie. His first dam was by Artist Jewel, 2nd dam by Cromwell Denmark, 3rd dam by Artist 75. From the above breeding you will see there is no better bred one living than NOBLE PEACOCK.

I will also stand 2 fine Jacks, HIGHWAY and BLACK DIAMOND at $10.00 to insure a mare with foal. Highway's colt won the blue at the Columbia Fair last year, and several of them sold for $100 at weaning time. These are the best Jacks that I have ever seen in Adair County.

BLACK DIAMOND is under 3 years old. Every one that has looked at him say that he is the best one they have ever seen.

Money due in all cases when the mare is traded or moved from the neighborhood. (Plug mares will not be bred to this stock.)

Feed at 25 cents per day or pasture after April 20th at 50 cents per week.

Respectfully,

W. L. Grady.

ARWED

This fine Coach Horse will make the season of 1911 at J. C. Browning's barn, near Milltown, and will be permitted to serve mares at the low sum of $10.00 to insure a living colt. ARWED is a fine breeder, and has some of the best colts in Adair County. When a mare is known to be in foal and is traded or sold, the season must be paid.

JACK CHINN

as fine a Jack as there is in this section, will make the season at same place and will serve mares at $6.00 to insure a living colt. He is well known as a breeder and needs no boosting.

J. C. Browning.

started for Illinois last Sunday.

Elmer Wilson made a business trip to the Russell Springs, Saturday.

Mrs. Nancy Burton, of MaGaha, visited her daughter, Mrs. G. E. Burton, of this place, last Saturday and Sunday.
